Fast arrival time!

By feherc69

The email I received about shipping estimates said I shouldn't expect this item before October 13th even though I purchased it Sept 20th. I thought that was crazy and was hoping that it would arrive a lot faster than that. I had purchased this book for a Embry Riddle class my husband was taking online and because of technical glitches within the school system he was already joining the class one week later than everyone else. (at the end of the add/drop deadline). But to our great satisfaction the book arrived by Friday..(sept 24th) even though I didn't pay for any kind of expedited shipping. Sufficed to say....we are very pleased with the item we received, in the condition it arrived and with the time it took to arrive. Nothing too fancy but great overall service. Thanks.
