AR Points!

By Ms. Nora Harp

Read aloud with my 5th grade daughter while she was studying early US settlement in Social Studies and we both enjoyed. I thought the writing was very well done and flowed nicely and in keeping with the language of the times. It wasn't super exciting but did give a good feel for what kinds of challenges early explorers faced.

Bold Journey

By Jesse B Ellyson

This is a great book for young adults. With plenty of action, this book grabs the reader's attention at the start and never lets go. The Lewis and Clark expedition is brought to vivid life through the eyes of Hugh McNeal, one of the team's youngest members.

From Fort Massac, Ohio all the way to the Pacific Ocean, this team of bold explorers faces one danger after another. Hungry bears and angry Indians, waterfalls and rapids, lack of food and deadly winters all stand in the way of progress. But a trail full of peril will not stop America's expansion and these brave adventurers are there to lead the way.

I enjoyed every page of this book and highly recommend it.
