Could Be Better.

By Douglas E. Wong

The arrangements included in this book are simplistic. The melody line is written into the piano score and its faith to the original recordings is middling at best (One Flight Down isn't even the same key). "The Nearness Of You" is easily the arrangement that shines the most.

As a warning, if you struggle with rhythm, you may have some initial trouble, as this book is filled non-standard (read: Jazz and not classical) rhythms. Break out your pencil, sub-divide and give it an hour or two and you should be alright.

Good for intermediate players..no higher level arrangements?

By Rachel Alison

In rating this songbook itself, not the "Come Away With Me" album, I give it four stars. I recommend this to intermediate players, but I have a feeling this isn't the exact arrangements that Norah Jones plays on her CD and live concerts. If this is the highest level in piano, players with a few years experience can stumble through well enough. Some pieces are harder than others. All in all, it's very enjoyable and fun to play, but is there a more exact copy for experienced players out there?

Great song book

By Norah Jones Fan

Norah Jones - Come Away with Me -PVG Songbook

I found this songbook is amazing. This songbook can really demonstrate the blue or jazzy melodies regarding to Norah's genre of music. It's not simple at all but it's not too hard. When I received, I just open it anxiously and the book is amazing. It's arranged very similar to the original version and there are many blue notes in it too (those bent notes and blue chords are actually very-well put together!) This book can be challenging for beginners but for an intermediate pianist, this book is what you need!! Actually some of the songs are pretty difficult such as "Don't Know Why" and "turn Me On"!! But if you know how to bend notes on piano to create a blue note, you can always recreate the notes from the book a little bit to make it even more challenging.

For all fellow pianists, I recommend you to get this book! It's the best songbook for y'all Norah lovers. The book itself is beautiful, clean and straight. Even though it has paperbacks, the cover is kinda hard which can definitely last very long!
