“Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health.” The words from 3 John 1:2 are a familiar refrain in many black churches today. What are the seeds of truth in prosperity preaching? Why is it so popular, especially in today’s African American church? Homiletics professor Debra Mumford begins by tracing the roots of prosperity preaching to its Word of Faith origins. Then she examines its common teachings, carefully weighing biblical proof texts against the larger scriptural testimony concerning our health, wealth, and spiritual wisdom.

Excellent overview and history of why so many Christians follow ministers who preach prosperity and 'name it and claim it.' Would be a good source to use in a Bible study.
