Coincidences: A Contemporary Romance & Erotic Story

'A romance novel that will provide you with excitement, plot twists and thrilling love scenes'

Natalie Stinson has created an electrifying contemporary romance with elegant dialogues and genuine characters.”

The first days of the week can be a drag for some people. Elizabeth, a girl in her mid-30s with a decent career as an economist, is one of them. She likes to spend her afternoons with a good book, and she enjoys red wine and good old rock music.

When Elizabeth is almost late for work on one Tuesday, after all the daily routines that tire her more than she could admit, her old Chevy is found in dust of a new Rover, and the shouting of some rude British boy rings in her ears for way too long.

Luckily, her best friend Jessica, a curvy, seductive girl with a wonderful personality and a knack for having fun and living for the moment is there for her. Jessica has the talent to catching almost any guy she lays her eyes on. Jessica knows what Elizabeth needs – a few evening hours with a nice drink to set her worries aside. By the time Jessica arrives to pick her up, she is both relieved and in desperate need of some relaxation. She cannot wait to tell her about things that happened during the day, most of which are received with a giggle and a notion how “she worries far too much”.

Jessica, however, also has a little secret of her own...

Discover some interesting coincidences in this heart pumping contemporary romance that will keep you hooked until the end of the erotic love story.

Horribly written

By Shelley rey

Not much to like. Very disjointed and hard to stay interested in the story. Sorry but not a good book.

It was a waste of my time and money

By Jo Oliver Berg

I do not want to give this book even one star..It was a waste of my time and money..

Felt like I was part of the story

By Sidney Townsend

Contemporary erotic plot that adds some twists in equation and makes the reader actually part of the story.

That's what I call modern romance. 5 stars for the characters development, as well.
