The Adventures of Taxi Dog

Maxi, a homeless mutt in New York City, has always fended for himself. Then one day a kind taxi driver named Jim offers him friendship, a home, and a place in the front seat! From that moment on, Maxi and Jim revel in the sights and sounds of the city, and share all sorts of wild adventures—from rushing two clowns and a chimp to the circus, to singing duets with an opera diva! These and other adventures are brilliantly depicted in Mark Buehner's witty, detail-packed oil paintings.

I loved this book when I first got it when my children were young and now I got another copy to send to my granddaughter and read to her when I see her next. It has a lovely rhyming patten, and sweet storyline promoting rescuing unloved, unwanted pets.

A wonderful story! My favorite children's book!

By Melissa G. Dore

This is my absolute favorite children's book, and give it to all of my new parent friends! The story is told in rhyme making the reading predictable for children. The illustrations are colorful and include "hidden" animals. And it's a wonderful, feel-good story! I only wish the author had written more stories about Maxi the Taxi Dog! (there are two other books)

The BEST Children's Book Ever!!!

By prudy

I have given this book as a gift four times -- and each time it has quickly become the child's favorite book by far. A very smart little ten-month-old I know (and love) crawls over to the bookshelf and gets "Maxi Taxi" three to four times a day and hands it to you to read it to him. I can recite the book in my sleep at this point!! The rhymes are lovely; the illustrations are sweet and the message is just beautiful. I promise you that your young children will adore this book.
