Extensive subject knowledge

By Shirley M. Ferber

Sally Morningstar has extensive knowledge of this complex subject and has broken it down into easily understandable language. The graphics and tables are very precise and the book just makes you feel better about mankind, in general, like there is a better world for you to find.

Best author since scott cunningham.

By A Customer

She not only explains the basics of wicca but also explains the myth that witches harm rather than help. This also gives a very good history on wicca. Personal storys of her own. And much much more. Also recommended The Wiccan Way Sally morningstar. To ride a silver bromstick Silver ravenwolf. (IM 16 not under 13 been wiccan since I was 11)
